

The "Puma" (Cougar) Fighter Plane Anthem
Music composed by Péter Elemér Kisfaludy
Lyrics by Aladár Heppes

Sparklingly clear blue, the sky is endless up above,
the sun shines its rays on us.
Many strong, burly men ready for a tough fight,
drive their machines into battle.
The brave fighter planes are guarding the Carpathian Mountains,
the sky is open, many fast combat planes
are guarding the ancient, blessed border.
His machine is buzzing and a fighter plane is up in the sky, despite his watchful guard.
He is fast and brave, and doesn't fear death,
but only fears the Lord's wrath.
Lightning flashes from the mechanical bird,
the hail of bullets thunders.
Burning and broken, the enemy in his wake,
he takes to the sky, in a victorious plane!
Horthy Miklos' fighter pilots.
